Any action or proceeding relating to a claim or controversy at law or equity that arises out of or relates to this Agreement or the Site or the Products (a "claim") must be brought in a federal or state court located in Orange County, California and each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of any such court in any such action or proceeding, unless such claim is submitted to arbitration as set forth below. connection with our Service to a mutually acceptable professional mediator and to negotiate in good faith toward reaching an agreement with respect to the dispute. In such event, neither you nor SHACC will proceed with court action until the completion of the mediation, the mediation being an express condition precedent to further remedies, or until thirty (30) days after the submission of the dispute to a professional mediator, whichever occurs first. If any party commences an action without first attempting to resolve the matter through mediation, or refuses to mediate after a request has been made, then that party will not be entitled to recover attorneys' fees, even if they would otherwise be available to that party in such action.

(c) Attorneys' Fee. If any legal action, arbitration or other proceeding is brought in connection with the Site or the Services, then the successful or prevailing party will be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in that action or proceeding, and/or enforcing any judgment granted therein, in addition to any other relief to which it may be entitled. Any judgment or order entered in such action or proceeding will contain a specific provision providing for the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing such judgment.
